

Bachman – CNY Eats Mor Chicken

((ANCHOR)) :07

It's a good day to be a chicken sandwich lover in Central New York. NCC's Justin Bachman is in Cicero, hopefully not still waiting in line.

((TRACK #1))

(SUPER= Cicero, NY)

(NAT SOUND=register crowd) :05

"It's about time" is the feeling today as Central New York gets its first ever Chick-Fil-A.

((SOT))

(SUPER=Bill Cook/Drove Two Hours) :08

"Man we've been waiting for this for months. We heard about it and we've had this on the calendar. Took the day off of work and came up.

((TRACK #2)) :06

The morning drivethru line was more than 45 minutes long, but it didn't seem to discourage anyone.

((SOT)) :03

"How often you gonna be here?" "Every week. At least"

((TRACK)) :08

Jimmer szatkowski is the owner and man responsible to bringing the restaurant to cicero. Originally from Medina, New York, Jimmer says its good to be home.

((SOT)) (Jimmer Szatkowski / Owner) :08

"It's really surreal. I consider it a great blessing to be able to return home to upstate New York, and to be able to bring Chick Fil A with me and have this opportunity to impact the community.

((TRACK)) :07

Some restaurants have a secret menu. I couldn't get Jimmer to spill the beans, but he sure made it seem real.

((SOT)) :04

"We do anticipate were gonna have raving fans come in here and make special requests"

((TRACK)) :02

You can see a full list of those “special requests” on the NCC news website.

Whether it’s in the store or through the drive-thru, these lines are crazy long, but everyone I’ve talked to says the food is absolutely worth it, now I just have to see for myself. Line’s moving, gotta go. In cicero, Justin Bachman for NCC news”
