

(Sunny)

Once again, the Princeton Review has Named Syracuse University one of the 10 best party schools in the country. N-C-C News's Sam Carter has more on how you can party hard and party safe.

From parties at Castle Court to house hopping down Euclid Avenue Syracuse University can be a fun place to be. However, the fun of some of these parties can turn dangerous quickly Associate Chief of the Department Public Safety John Scardino as seen firsthand just how wrong things can go.

[TAKE SOT

DURATION:0'13"]

<" I've actually seen students die as a result of alcohol poisoning I've see students become very ill"">

Scardino says bringing your own drinks and knowing yourself can be key in staying safe.

[TAKE SOT

DURATION:0'08"]

<" Bring your own alcohol is the safest way to go and kind of know your limits.">

Scardino adds that if you feel unsafe contact public safety and they will make sure you get home safety.

Sam Carter N-C-C News.