

(ANC)

I'm Brandon Williams reporting for N-C-C News. Here are the stories making news today, August first.

RUNS: x:xx

(TRACK 1)

An Aeromexico flight carrying 103 people crashed just after taking off from an airport in northern Mexico, forcing passengers to quickly exit the plane before it went up in flames. An American passenger who was on board just happened to capture the sound of the impact.

[TAKE SOT

NAME:Impact of plane crash

DURATION:0'04"]

<"(sound of impact from the crash)">

There were no casualties as a result the crash, but several passengers were injured.

(Track 2)

The Senate confirmation of Supreme Court nominee Brett Kavanaugh is heating up. Democrats are investigating documents related to Kavanaugh's time with the George W. Bush administration. Democrats believe the documents contain information about controversial topics. Senate Minority Leader Chuck Schumer says the public deserves to know more.

[TAKE SOT

NAME:Democratic Senate Minority Leader Chuck Schumer

DURATION:0'07"]

<" What does Judge Kavanaugh have to hide? What are our Republican colleagues so afraid of revealing?">

Confirmation hearings could begin as soon as August.

(Track 3)

After a recent controversy over downloadable 3-D gun files, a U-S District Judge has issued an order to stop the distribution.

Michael Gargill, the owner of a gun store in Austin says gun regulation is coming to an end.

[INSERT :

NAME:Michael Gargill

DURATION:0'03"]

<"The tombstone is already set in place. Gun control is going to die.">

Around one thousand people downloaded the 3-d file prior to the order being signed.

For N-C-C News, I'm Brandon Williams reporting, you can find full stories on our website at N-C-C-News-online-dot-com.