FOR MANY THE HOLLIDAY SEASON IS A TIME FOR GIVING.
N-C-C'S ANNA AZALLION REPORTS A LOCAL WINE SHOP OWNER IS ENCOURAGING PEOPLE TO DO JUST THAT.

(TRACK 1)

AT GARY DECKER'S WINE SHOP VINOMANIA, HE'S NOT ONLY SELLING WINE THIS DECEMBER.
HE'S ALSO COLLECTING FOOD AND TOILETRIES FOR A FRIEND IN NEED.

("Canned goods or socks or razors or toilet paper you know things that are basic necessities. we all have them but he doesn't")

(Track 2)

DECKER AND MINTON BECAME FRIENDS THREE YEARS AGO WHEN MINTON WAS COLLECTING BOTTLES AND CANS NEAR VINOMANIA.
SINCE THEN MINTON HAS BEEN HELPING DECKER AT THE STORE AND NOW
DECKER IS WORKING TO HELP MINTON.
HIS EFFORTS HOWEVER, AREN'T GOING HOW HE PLANNED.

("I'm a little dissapointed i'm going really? i'm just like you really can't drive by here and bring one can of soup? even if you don't shop here and you're just a facebook friend do something.")

(Track 3)

DECKER SAYS OUT OF THE ROUGHTLY 1600 PEOPLE WHO FOLLOW THE STORE
ON FACEBOOK, ONLY ABOUT SEVEN HAVE BROUGHT CANNED GOODS OR TOILETRIES.

HE'S HOPING FOR MORE PEOPLE TO DONATE BY THE END OF DECEMBER.
